Not a sound, I hear you speak
I am broken, I feel weak
Give in to the feeling
I will stop believing
That your love is out of reach

Catch a fall and I won't stand in your way
And I need you like a flower needs the rain

Catch a fall and I won't stand in your way
And I need you like a flower needs the rain

I will never watch you drown
Catch you gently, lay you down
I am frozen, but it's you I've chosen
And it seems I'll always be around

Catch a fall and I won't stand in your way
And I need you like a flower needs the rain

Catch a fall and I won't stand in your way
And I need you like a flower needs the rain
(Like a flower needs the rain)
