I've got a word inside my mouth right now.
It's burning, it's begging for a chance to come out.
It's gonna dance it's way from ear to ear and everybody's gonna wanna hear.
Everybody's got their ear to the ground now.
Once we whisperedÂ... and now we're screaming.
It's a chain, chain, chain reaction.
I've heard a picture is worth a thousand words.
So, I click, click, snap, snap, flash, flash, flash, with my photographs.
Word sure travels fast around here, so everybodyÂ...
Everybody!
Everybody's got a story to tell, so raise your hands and yell.
Once we whisperedÂ... and now we're screaming.
It's a chain, chain, chain reaction.
The words are filling up inside my mouth, spilling
outÂ... right now.
Once we whisperedÂ... now we're screaming.
It's a chain, chain, chain reaction.
