This freedom rings, it stings my skin like the chill of a sinner. This freedom rings, it stings my skin, just like the chill... A lot of people are seeing red. A lot of people are feeling blue. A lot of white guys in suits and ties write checks and break necks. Here we go again... Spend money to save our souls. My credit card so hard like the wrath of God. Spend money to save our souls. My credit card so hard... A lot of people are seeing red. A lot of people are feeling blue. A lot of white guys in suits and ties write checks and break necks.
