Just for you, I could fly
Just for you, I could walk the oceans
I would cross all divides
To satisfy your whims and notions
For you, I could break the system
I would take every blow
Survive upon a poor man's wisdom
And if you want I'd chase the world away
And when you cry I'd kiss the tears away
Just for you, I would cry
Just for you, I would fall down to my knees
And pray that I could raise a love that's fit to please you
And if you're lonely I will be with you
If you're in doubt I'll tell you what to do
I would take your hand and I'll lead you through
I'd give my very soul to be with you
And when infatuation fades I'll still be by your side
I will be there when you call
There's not one thing I wouldn't do
That I couldn't do at all
That I wouldn't do at all
Just for you, I would change
Just for you, I would break the system
I would take every blow
Survive upon a poor man's wisdom
