"Why does my family always have to fuck up everything I have goin? Are they jealous? Is it because...(can't understand anymore)"

Livin to die, dyin to live, hatin to give into the bullshit, i wish but it wont quit can somebody stop this, i need some fuckin help, Cause they're all jsut better than me so FUCMYSELF!

Everybody spits in my face, Everybody spits the same and it really hits on the vein of me, This is the very meanin' of hate, The very reason I been commited and labeled a technical basket case, Please, I just can't take it anymore, Attackin' me from every angle soon as I walk in the door, Harder and harder you just kept pushin and pushin til I was farther and farther away from all of the bullshit and Now Im the person you always wanted me to be a loser just like my daddy to the highest degree Well it aint for me, that i go out and go away, before my life is just a repeat of that mother fucker's story, this shit is legendary, you can like it or not, say what you say the other way or handle it on the spot, and my feelings are irrelivent to all the games and jokes, sometimes i feel a little provoked To Step Down
