We stare in the eyes of assassins
Our courage never falters, never to fail
Cowards them all lurking in darkness
In the end you'll pay

Infinitum - falling into black
Infinitum - screaming
We are leaving
On a journey into the unknown
Forever believing the promises made long ago

Spirits of warlords now beckon
Drawing us closer to where heroes belong
To join the souls of the valiant
The daring, the fearless, the noble, the strong!

So proudly we watch from a distance
In our memory warriors fight to the grave
Our warcries resound through the vastness of time
To provide inspiration to the hearts of the brave
