Leave me all alone There ain't nobody calling on my telephone Because I ripped that bitch right up out of the wall I apologize to any or that tried to call I haven't been myself lately I've been slowly losing my mind and telling them it's gravy I'm looking all shady and I haven't showered in weeks I haven't washed my balls, I haven't brushed my teeth All I see is demons everywhere that I look Was it the Ouija, the Black Magic Warlock book? I can't remember, but how can my memories leave me? I can't believe the spirits would try to deceive me But they did, just like a little kid I was so eager to learn, so willing to give But all they did was hate me, and break me Use my body for a host and my mirror for the gateway

Something is wrong with me, I can't be who I need to be Something is wrong with me, will it last for eternity?
Something is wrong with me, I can't be who I need to be Something is wrong with me, will it last for eternity?

Please don't walk away I want you to hear what I got to say I never had anyone ever care for me I never had anyone ever there for me If you would listen to me instead of calling me names I would I could explain why I'm shaking and why I'm going insane My mind is on vacation, lack of conversation I'm like a radio, with static on every station Still I wanna know, will I be normal again? You say it's bullshit and tell me that it's all pretend But if it's false, then why don't the demons just disappear? And if it's untrue, then why am I seeing them crystal clear? Because I do, the mirror's turning blue And soul after soul keeps walking right through They're living in my house and living inside my head Some sleep inside the closet, others sleep under the bed

Something is wrong with me, I can't be who I need to be Something is wrong with me, will it last for eternity?
Something is wrong with me, I can't be who I need to be Something is wrong with me, will it last for eternity?

Something is wrong with me, I can't be who I need to be Something is wrong with me, will it last for eternity?
Something is wrong with me, I can't be who I need to be Something is wrong with me, will it last for eternity?

Something is wrong with me, I can't be who I need to be Something is wrong with me, will it last for eternity?
Something is wrong with me, I can't be who I need to be Something is wrong with me, will it last for eternity?

Yeah fuck that, I just ya know...this...I just wanted to come on here and say that uh I ain't feelin only havin 13 tracks on the motherfucking Cryptic Collection 3. I ain't feelin that alright? So I just wanted...ya know...this is an extra track of just...I guess it's just of me (sing something) I'm not gonna si...this isn't like a lounge or nothin like that. I don't wanna sing i just want it to have an extra bonus track cause I don't wanna not have enough shit. (they wanna hear you sing) and if they do then they can rewind back threw the album and hear us doin what we did on the joker which we took a classic song and a lot of people wanna know why we did that an-and you know what fuck that heres Monoxide to tell you why. We did it cause we like it and were jokers and were smokers, and were midnight tokers and we wanna grab your Georgian peaches and shake your trees and that's just what we do. that's MOTHERFUCKING RIGHT! I don't give a fuck I can't sing, listen to this: (I Can-) But I'ma picker though right and how fresh is that how did he no back in the day that pickin your nose is fresh (right) I mean you get them ones where there caught in the hair and it'll like...you jerk it hard enough and a hot little tear rolls down your eyes cause that's like nervous system. that's how a cold start you get a lil chaffy in the nose area. I don't give a fuck listen...listen...(Yea uh) those are pickers motherFUCKER. I like the joker, I think this is fresh, if Steve Millers got a problem we can fuckin shove dude he doesn't wanna get ya know...and I don't wanna de-defame him when I asked to use his song cause like we called him up. We we like "HEY STEVE" and he's like "who in the fuck is this" and I'm like "ya know it's fuckin me and Paul and we wanna...ya know can we do the track?" "how much acid have you got?" and I was like "we can arrange things but can we do the track we need a yes or a no" and he kinda hung up so that's like yeah to me, in my book that's a yes (sounded like yeah to me) he did not say no...we roll with the track. And there it is, it's like what the fuck there's no rhyme there's no reason, we just like it. If we could do songs like this all the time our shit would go...studio cost would be an all time low. that's it I got it! We got it! I Got it! The new shit, the new look, the new sound.
