Never been the kind to break down on my knees
Never been the one to ask you please
Been living my life, the way I think is right Never liked my victories but shure enjoyed the fights

And I'm not asking for forgiveness,
Cause I know that I won't fade
Untill my own parade
Until my own parade

When the lights begin to fade, and the music stops
forever
When the birds up in the threes, they stop singing all together
When I close my eyes and kiss this world goodbye,
When the night falls over me, and I won't see another morning
Just know that I won't ever be afraid
Untill my own parade
Untill my own parade

I'll never be the one, to break down on my knees
Never be the one to ask you please
I'm living my life, the way I think is right
Never like my victory, but shure enjoy the fight

And I'm not asking for forgiveness,
And I know that I won't fade
Untill my own parade
Until my own parade

When the lights begin to fade, and the music stops
forever
When the birds up in the threes, they stop singing all
together
When I close my eyes and kiss this world goodbye,
When the night falls over me, and I won't see another
morning
Just know that I won't ever be afraid
Untill my own parade
Untill my own parade

Until my own parade
