It's been to long that I've been laying down on the floor
Feeling pity for myself
It's been to long that I've been holding in the pain
Wishing it would go away

And I don't wanna stay like this anymore
(sweet lamb shine upon me)

I'm standing up
It doesn't matter if I'm bleeding
I'll catch my breath and wipe the tears away
I'm standing up and I'll keep walking

I know it's not gonna be easy
I know there gonna hit me where it hurts
They wanna take my heart and break it into pieces
But I know that I don't to much strenght to carry on

I'm standing up
