Haunted and drifted into a corner
No open door in sight
Circling around in a blizzard
Painfully rifted scars

Surrender your sword!
Rescue your soul!

Despondent
'cause I have given
Signs of unthoughtful crimes
An act against my own heaven
Forgive me for sins of hate

Forced to create a struggle
Will you ever understand?
The resolution of a jealous action
The sword was not made by my hand

Waiting for an instant answer
Waiting for the truth
Floundering in my river
Searching like a fool

Surrender your sword!
Rescue your soul!

Sleepless nights
Was it worth it?
Detest the fake role of grace
I'm riding an endless journey
Insanity: you're never safe!
