My mind cannot speak
My heart cannot open up,
'cause truth is fading away
Love based on hate
Forever I wait,
'cause I know where I belong
Is it fair: the sickness I can't bear!

See you fading
The gap between us grows fast
See you fighting
The battle is lost
Farewell

Release my thoughts
Free my soul
Or I'm dying in this hole
The dream is near
I still seek you, dear,
'cause desire conquers the fear
I see, the place where my heart leads!

See you coming
See you reaching
Wounded tears disappear

I sense you
I feel you
Like a fairytale
These iron chains do break

Like an arrow
So uncure
I throw it all away

I sense you
I feel you
Like a fairytale
These iron chains do break
