Quest for love, quest for dream, quest for all truth!!
Only way to dream is in time you're making out
Waste no love, waste no dream, waste no more truth
Going through the days you can praise a life for you,
Hold your truth again

Just when you show a smiling face one night
Just when you hide something cold in your mind Everytime you remember that you've never been feeling safe so far

And when you mean to be so nice to all
And when you try to tell a lie to yourself Everytime you remember that you've always been feeling blue for long

If your sadness and your pain would beat you up
No need to break your heart, no need to be alone,
You got somebody to share with you

Quest for love, quest for dream, quest for all truth!!
Take it to the place that you wanted to get once
Break for love, break for dream, break no more truth
Leading to a note that you used to see your name
Quest for love, quest for dream, quest for all truth!!
Only way to dream is in time you're making out
Waste no love, waste no dream, waste no more truth
Going through the days you can praise a life for you,
Hold your truth again

Just when you spend your time in quiet night
Just when you're sighing for a sweet heart you care
Anytime you remember how much
You've been into this love for two

And when you come to know a taste of tears
And when you're ready for a touch of the skin
Reminding you something tough in your heart,
In your blood all the way

If you stand alone in distance and far away

Time could be freezed, you can always be near your love,
You got somebody to be for you

Quest for love, quest for dream, quest for all truth!!
Make a tender kiss that you mark your sign of love
Free for love, free for dream, free for all truth!!
Always being here now before the magic works
Quest for love, quest for dream, quest for all truth!!
Only single moment, you live your life for love
Pain for love, pain for dream, pain for all truth!!
Breaking out the days you can praise a life for you,
Hold your truth again

Stay with me every day and night
Don't let me down, let me be, let me be your love
Stay with my heart anytime, anywhere
Look around, we're leaving the loneliness

Quest for love, quest for dream, quest for all truth!!
Take it to the place that you wanted to get once
Break for love, break for dream, break no more truth
Leading to a note that you used to see your name
Quest for love, quest for dream, quest for all truth!!
Only way to dream is in time you're making out
Waste no love, waste no dream, waste no more truth
Going through the days you can praise a life for you,
Hold your truth again
