Haunted and drifted into a corner no open door in sight circling around in a blizzard painfully rifted scars

Surrender your sword!
rescue your soul!

Despondent
'cause I have given signs of unthoughtful crimes an act against my own heaven forgive me for sins of hate

Forced to create a struggle will you ever understand? the resolution of a jealous action the sword was not made by my hand

Waiting for an instant answer waiting for the truth floundering in my river searching like a fool

Surrender your sword!
rescue your soul!

Sleepless nights
was it worth it?
detest the fake role of grace I'm riding an endless journey insanity: you're never safe!
