First off, let me clear my chest, started off, no baby steps

We skip right to the moment where babies come next
Then grip tight holding ourselves to what's nothing left
Two choices, I'm your boyfriend or let's just forget

After that you plead like I can't believe what we did
So only option was to agree and keep it secret
Or your friends they make you think
That you're just another cheerleader on his team, Tyga man's a playa

See but don't believe what ears can hear and eyes cannot see
You seein' me on a daily baby
Where's my time for another lady?
Get over it, trust me faithfully, I can be all that you need

You say you wanna let me go and
That's gonna have to end
You can go get a new boyfriend
But you'll never get a better boyfriend

I'd love to say I'll wait
But you know I don't pretend
I'ma go get a new girlfriend
I'ma get myself a better girlfriend

Dear ma misses, she let your guard down for girbuads and riches
So we tore the mall down and therefore
For future little wishes, no more penny pinching
No more penny, pigeon, chowing at places, dinner, two reservations

I'm so onto this life style, I'll put you onto it
Baby, Tyga's style, just don't run from it
'Cuz there's carpets everywhere we roam now
Profits for party poppin' with popular crowds

Getting images flickering, Paris Hilton like her dress was ridiculous

Compliments of Tyga's expense, I'll come at them like
Pete Wentz
Don't worry it's all coming back at the end

You say you wanna let me go and
That's gonna have to end
You can go get a new boyfriend
But you'll never get a better boyfriend

I'd love to say I'll wait
But you know I don't pretend
I'ma go get a new girlfriend
I'ma get myself a better girlfriend

Wait so this is how we plan it
Benefit, friends and relationships don't mix
But don't trip, 'cause you I'm far over with Long John Silver sick
And this boat no longer floats for you goldfish

Go dig another ditch 'cause I'm dead done with this I'm hangin up now, my new girl she's in the front now
I know that gotta hurt, time to answer her
Well, I guess it's true, stick to the player rules

You say you wanna let me go and
That's gonna have to end
You can go get a new boyfriend
But you'll never get a better boyfriend

I'd love to say I'll wait
But you know I don't pretend
I'ma go get a new girlfriend
I'ma get myself a better girlfriend

You say you wanna let me go and
That's gonna have to end
You can go get a new boyfriend
But you'll never get a better boyfriend

I'd love to say I'll wait
But you know I don't pretend
I'ma go get a new girlfriend
I'ma get myself a better girlfriend
