[Chris Brown - Chorus]

Tonight I want me a wonder woman Who can save my life wanna feel her power right now a real wonder woman come be my hero (tonight) you can take your cape off you dont need that to save my heart you just need to take me, I know you can fly because I see right through your disguise

[Tyga]

Damn she bad, damn she bad heels with the matching bag mirror with the lip gloss lick her lips then she laugh Lady Gaga colored Mac all her friends using that she could be on magazines, but she aint really into that owww, damn she bad had to say it twice, its gettin' late you should spend the night no rushing thangs, got a whole lot of game and I'm stuck in my ways, but just for you, I'll change

Polaroid camera put this moment on your freezer 5 in the mornin' yawning, kiss ya while you sleepin' half awake I can see you peekin' wake up baby cuz...

[Chris Brown - Chorus]

[Tyga]

all shit aside
I love the way you walk you got that indie glow give me some time to watch freeze freeze you put my heart into anesthesia I love you 'round the clock, wont stop till I get enough overtime overtime I put in for that Valentine know you appreciate it baby lingerie (?) lacing lets get naked, rip our clothes off

I'm the doctor you my nurse in a uniform head game outta control, super heroes on the floor Bruce Banner beat it up, then I turn into the hulk be my Betty Ross, make the bed rock (all night long)

[Chris Brown - Chorus]
[End]
