Today the greatest thing happened to me
All of my friends came and surrounded me
When I get down, you get turned off
It's the awkward silence, in the back of the room

Alone in the hallway, you move through the doorway
Looking at his face, what did he say

Fire away, if you didn't care at all
Fire away, when they take what they want from you

Today the greatest thing happened to me
I sang hallelujah, in my head
Cause what I saw, when you came in
And he hit the floor, when you looked him in his eyes

Let me breathe, on and on, it's no way out
Let me breathe

Alone in the hallway, looking at his face
You move through the doorway
Compose yourself and..
Fire away, if you didn't care at all
Fire away, when they take what they want from you

Just get used to it, just get used to it
