Hey girl, why don't you listen

[Verse 1:]

I know why you lookin so sad, you got your head down in your hands and you cryin out loud.
Screamin that he did it again, took your love, used you up and he ran back to the other chick.
You sayin that you tired of the lies, no more back and forth this time, I'm throwin out his stuff and sayin bye.
Can't continue goin thru this, but I know when he calls you'll be right back with him again. Ooooo no!

[Chorus:]

Everydays always something, a man will go and take
you pride your left with nothing.
Tell you that to stick around and you should love him.
Tell me what's it gonna take your losing your sanity.
Well then let me tell you this one thing, your worth over
a million princess cut diamonds.
Don't let nobody tell you that you deserve this, lift your head up high and say I know that I'm gonna be okay.

[Verse 2:]

You should stop takin the blame, say it's your fault cuz
he's gone and aint ever commin home.
You know that nothings ever gon change, he'll be back,
your off track, and after that be on his way.
Life has so much more to offer you, so you gotta shake
the blues, pick yourself up, do what you gotta do.
Trust me girl it gets better, time goes on, you realize he never deserved you at all.

[Chorus:]

Everydays always something, a man will go and take
you pride your left with nothing.
Tell you that to stick around and you should love him.
Tell me what's it gonna take your losing your sanity.
Well then let me tell you this one thing, your worth over
a million princess cut diamonds.
Don't let nobody tell you that you deserve this, lift your head up high and say I know that I'm gonna be okay.

[Hook:]

And if you got a man that's treatin you real bad, never has your back, it's time for you to leave his ass.
And if you got a man that never gave a damn, it's time
for you to understand, you deserve a better man.
And if you got a man that's treatin you real bad, never
has your back, it's time for you to leave his ass.
And if you got a man that never gave a damn, it's time for you to understand, because you deserve a better man.

[Chorus: x2]

Everydays always something, a man will go and take
you pride your left with nothing.
Tell you that to stick around and you should love him.
Tell me what's it gonna take your losing your sanity.
Well then let me tell you this one thing, your worth over
a million princess cut diamonds.
Don't let nobody tell you that you deserve this, lift your head up high and say I know that I'm gonna be okay.
