Ohh yeah

It all started off hanging out
Doing what lovers do
On their way to falling in love
Everybody said leave you alone
Girl he's no good for you
But they can't judge what they don't know
Cause when I'm with you you're all I see
And when you touch me
My body goes weak
You're such apart of my identity
That without you there's no me
No no no

What were my dreams are now reality
You say all the things
That I'm about to speak
No one can ever change the way I feel
Baby it's you and me against the world
It's ride or die to the very end
Till your tires pop I'll be your second skin
You're my man no doubt that I'm your girl
Baby it's you and me against the world

They can hate on us if they choose
No matter what they do
It's gonna be me and you forever
The way you love me is unnatural
Like I'm the only girl
Who is existing in your world
I can't picture my life without you
You been by my side the whole way through The chances to find somebody
Almost like you is a million to one
So the battle is won

What were my dreams but now reality
You say all the things
That I'm about to speak
No one can ever change the way I feel

Baby it's you and me against the world
It's ride or die to the very end
Till your tires pop I'll be your second skin
You're my man no doubt that I'm your girl
Baby it's you and me against the world

I'm here to stay I ain't going nowhere
You just let me know and I'll never let you
Go our love is so painful the way everyone hates us
And it's okay because you make it invisible

What were my dreams are now reality
You say all the things that
I'm about to speak
No one can ever change the way I feel
Baby it's you and me against the world
It's ride or die to the very end
Till your tires pop I'll be your second skin
You're my man no doubt I'm your girl baby it's you and me against the world
