"An Angel"

As our eyes grow weary, our lips tight of silence
It was a long day, just time to go to bed
Cause lying next to you, is all that I want tonight
You made me feel secure, I hope I can stop time

So peaceful and silent, I see an angel
Sleeping the night away, sleeping the night away

As our eyes close slowly, our words still unspoken
I don't know what to say, but goodnight
Cause lying next to you, is all that I want tonight
You made me feel secure, I hope I can stop time

So peaceful and silent, I see an angel
Sleeping the night away, sleeping the night away
So peaceful and silent, I see an angel
And I'll try anything, to wake you up again

I've made mistakes before
I promise not to do it again
But let me ask you just one question
"can I lean on your shoulder, your shoulder, your shoulder"

So peaceful and silent, I see an angel
Sleeping the night away, sleeping the night away
So peaceful and silent, I see an angel
And I'll try anything, to wake you up again
