Do you remember?
When I said...
Can I try my Luck on you?!

I've waited long enough for you no more wasted time alone
Saving the message you sent to me, is it okay?
I'll be waiting, did it ever crossed your mind
That I'm falling for you,

And I never had the time and I don't have the words
To say I'm falling out of place to another lonely road
The words I want to say seems to hide behind my head

The message that you sent
I kept it in my heart
I'm falling out of place to another lonely you.

The night is young and no stars
But your voice soothes my ears
You broke up with your boyfriend, is it okay?
If I'll be waiting
