

Type O Negative "Clutching"

You closed your eyes
Just to kill the conversation
It's raining forever
I think I'll drown myself with my tears

Why does it have to be like this
So it doesn't mean anything to you
So do you want to see loyalty
Are these tears not enough
For you 2x

By the sound of your message
I felt you meant goodbye
The raining is never ending
Clutching my emotions
Remembering the moments passed

Why does it have to be like this
So it doesn't mean anything to you
So do you want to see loyalty
Are these tears not enough
For you 2x

I thought it was okay
My feelings unfolded right before my eyes
What did your embraces mean
Did you mean it when you called
My name 5x
