I understand what you're trying to say no need to say it I am leaving but don't walk away just stay right there I'll fall

And I'll just look at you I'll just look at you
I don't know why

I always feel like this it's hard to breathe when you're around

Your big blue eyes are drowning me to sleep
The space is tearing me
I'll stay please stay, I'll stay please stay, I'll stay please stay

Words are not important
Smiles are all I need from you
The yearning it's getting stronger, I'm dumb
I hope you like me too

You're two tables away, you could see me mesmerised
I want to talk to you but I'm so scared Before I never cared, the infatuation's never there but now it's killing me
I really hate myself! I really hate myself! I really hate myself!

Words are not important
Smiles are all I need from you
The yearning it's getting stronger, I'm dumb
I hope you like me too
