This city's streets are tearing me apart
And I just wish for one second that i could call this place home forget about it
we wont take this lying down
ive got it all, ive got it all figured out ive come to the conclusion that i dont belong here anymore
i cant take this town seriously maybe its just me
or maybe something has gone wrong

get away from me you're already going under i'll bite the bullet one last time, and spit it back in your face never regret it
anymore
please take me away
please take me away
(from this place)
please take me away
yahh.
(from this place)
please take me away from this place take me away
ive got it all ive got it all figured out
anymore

ooh
