You know it's not the best thing to do,
But I don't see another way
Cos you just make me blue,
You know it's not the best thing to say,
But I can't help it
Cos I feel that way

It's impossible, I gotta leave today
It's biological ? no I can't stay
I gotta move along, no matter what you say
It's impossible to stay

It has to end even if I have to push with force,
You know I would've given,
Would've given my life for yours,
But it don't even feel right,
The only thing that seems to work for us is fight

It's impossible, I gotta leave today
It's biological ? no I can't stay
I gotta move along, no matter what you say
It's impossible to stay
