What a joy it is to be loved by you My most precious gift my guardian angel
I believe God sent you here to slow me down
And So whatever it takes imma keep you around baby

(Chorus)

I feel like i can conquer the world with you by my side because your unconditional love
baby that's why you
You bring out the best in me
because you are the best baby
And If I had to do it again I'll still choose you girl
You bring out the best in me
Because you are the best baby

Baby you're my life
And if you ever leave me girl I'd die
Cuz I've never had a love so pure This because of you I'm sure
And with you by my side we could conquer the world heyyyy

I feel like i can conquer the world with you by my side
because your unconditional love
baby that's why you
You bring out the best in me
because you are the best baby
And If I had to do it again I'll still choose you girl
You bring out the best in me
Because you are the best baby

So if you're feeling like you got that girl
You think she's the best
You think she's the world
Throw your hands up and say to the world
She's the best she's the best girl
So the next time you see a chick and she think she's fine
Look her in the eye and be like Na Ma
She can never be like mine
She's the best She's the best girl

(Chorus)

You bring out the best in me
because you are the best baby
And If I had to do it again I'll still choose you girl
You bring out the best in me
Because you are the best baby

You bring out the best in me
because you are the best baby
And If I had to do it again I'll still choose you girl
You bring out the best in me
Because you are the best baby
