i dont know how to say this to her i cant do this no more and i hope you understand that i dont love her i dont love her like i used to i dont want her i dont want her like i used to you know we been together for a while but we been through alot and i guess its just

i dont love her i dont love her like i used to i dont love her i dont love her like i used to listen

girl i told you i would love you til the end i ain ever felt like this and i said i ain lettin it go imma hold on til my casket close after i did whatever dealt with the cards in my hand that was given to me damn its bad that after four years involved i dont like the things i see i mean

sometimes when your sensing the one that you chose ain the real thing
and i start thinking when the door close and the one choise starts changing
makes ya start thinking what is so cold and she dont know you wanna leave it makes ya start thinking that for so long i found that she want aint the same thing

woke up this morning she brings breakfast to the table i was thinkin
i dont love her i dont love her like i used to
i dont want her i dont want her like i used to every time she tells me that im all shes living for im thinkin

i dont love her i dont love her like i used to
i dont love her i dont love her like i used to damn i swear this feels so wrong for not wanting to be here no more until a reflection of the way that this is and ain another girl gettin this here cuz baby im matured and made clear that id give what ive never before thats how i know that the times here sorrriyyyy

i dont want her i dont want her like i used to
i dont love her i dont love her like i used to
i dont love her i dont love her like i used to
