I use to chase the cat wing, they want nothing but the dog in me.

I use to chase the cat wing, they want nothing but the dog in me.

Legend has it that papa was a rolling stone and wherever he laid his head, it became his home. I'm at home with this girl I'm with, and sometimes in relationships you go through some deep shit. I've been dedicated over ten years to the business, when it come to my private life, I never say shit. My privacy is all I own, the rest of me is on TV, man, it's all I own.

If you wanna pick a bone, don't pick it with me, I only answer to one man, that's G O D.

Most people go to God when they're going through something,

But I'm at the church every Sunday and I ain't going through nothing.

Now where your real friends at when you need 'em the most?

Nobody stands keep your head up, this shit is a joke.

Another word on the street is that I'm hiding like Bin Laden,

I'm smarter than you think, they ain't looking for me.

I use to chase the cat wing, they want nothing but the dog in me.

I use to chase the cat wing, they want nothing but the dog in me.

Abortion was never an option, as soon as I found out about the kid I was happy as shit

They say don't say nothing until four months pass, it's only been three months, I still say I'm blessed.

I already bought my first little pair Air Jordan, when the baby get here, they'd be signed by Air Jordan.

Listen, I was advised not to speak, but I decided to speak, because I know my fans' word about me.

When the truth comes out, everybody gonna see that you can't believe everything you read.

And for the record, hell no, this ain't a publicity stunt, I don't need this press, I'm too blessed to be stressed.
I was hoping I don't have to write this chapter in my diary,
I'll keep my head up, I won't let 'em get the best of me.
It takes two to tangle when I play my part,
This ain't a rap song, this is my heart.

I use to chase the cat wing, they want nothing but the dog in me.
I use to chase the cat wing, they want nothing but the
dog in me.

My best friend, the mentor, came to see me,
He said, I know you're rapping and all, but you don't need this, dog.
Stop the music.
I know truth ain't false to shit in a good look
And if I did what they said they be throwing the book
At this time me and my family is asking for privacy
We appreciate the press and those of you who care.
But when this whole thing is over is time to move on What don't kill you just makes you strong.

I use to chase the cat wing, they want nothing but the
dog in me.
I use to chase the cat wing, they want nothing but the
dog in me.
I use to chase the cat wing, they want nothing but the
dog in me.
I use to chase the cat wing, they want nothing but the dog in me.
