"Resist To Find Out"

Visit "Resist To Find Out" on MotoLyrics.com

I'll resist to find out anything other than what all you've become and i'll resist to break out i'm so far from anything right that I'm losing my conscience by night and i'll pretend to be you so you are forever in charge of keeping my mind you will see through my heart the faces of people controlled and trying to be set free. i'm searching for you some where but I'm seem to find you no where but the places i've been searching in your dreams cause everything will beat us until we learn to be facetious and we cast away those demons in our dreams
