Weep with all the passion the guilt of your barren heart,
The weakness in the hope of rewards
And the grandeur of being

Scream with all the power the guilt of your weary heart,
The weakness in the hope of rewards
And the grandeur of my drama...
Weep with all the passion the guilt of your barren heart,
The weakness in the hope of rewards
And the grandeur of being Memories...
Weaken...
Bitter tears...

Carry on with memories, in this picture I'm carrying with me
I take a look in it and all I can see is My past, my years, all bittersweet
My future as uncertain beat,
My jokes, my joy, my melancholy, my stolen present

Carry on with memories, in this picture I'm carrying with
me
I take a look in it and all I can see is my Past, my years, all bittersweet
My future as uncertain beat,
My jokes, my joy, my melancholy, my stolen present

Scream with all your passion the guilt of your tired heart,
The weakness in the hope of rewards and
The grandeur of your being

Carrying on with memories, in this picture I'm Carrying with your big life
I take a look today...

I take a look in it...
All I can see is mine...
My past, my years, my days...
You all bittersweet...
My future as uncertain beat...

Every law, you submitted to,
During your whole life
Has smothered you
Your cuts will heal up if they're only the truth
You live your life to find the right rewards

I've almost got
the matter straight
I've suffered a lot
I feel I'm

Every law, you submitted to,
During your whole life
Has smothered you
Your cuts will heal up if they're only the truth
You live your life to find the right rewards

Scream with all the passion the guilt of your tired heart,
The weakness in the hope of rewards and
The grandeur of your being

When, inside, you lie your tears fall apart
To take your fears, away of your limbs
Today is time to weep your sins high
Or fight because the truth is that
Your rewards won't come in time for you
Life could be the worst or the best but the Time for you is come to live in spite of all
All I can say is don't wait for Death
