You always try
To hide in the night
And blink at the door
You'd let it go
Though you'll never know
When it all may be gone
We close our heart
We shut down our world
To rumors you know
Tore down the shield
Your future reveals
Where the feel's yet to go

You've gotta open up your mind and feel the love in your life
You've got to open up your heart feel the love in your life
You've gotta open up your mind and feel the love in
your life
You've got to open up your heart feel the love in your life
Love in your life

They won't decide

Watch time glassing by Then float away
You can't get I'll Just typewrite on in
To the rows we could play
Dissatisfied
You always have tried
To divert with goodbyes
Though what you seek Who knows it could be Right in front of your eyes

You've gotta open up your mind and feel the love in
your life
You've got to open up your heart feel the love in your

You've gotta open up your mind and feel the love in
your life
You've got to open up your heart feel the love in your
life
Love in your life

(Repeat to the end)
