Lemon

See through in the sunlight

She wore lemon

But never in the daylight

She's gonna make you cry

She's gonna make you whisper and moan

And when you're dry

She draws her water from the stone

And I feel

Like I'm slowly, slowly, slowly slipping under

And I feel

Like I'm holding onto nothing

She wore lemon

To color in the cold gray night

She had heaven

And she held on so tight

A moving picture

Through the light projected

He can see himself up close

A man captures color

A man likes to stare

He turns his money into light

To look for her

And I feel

Like I'm drifting, drifting, drifting from the shore

And I feel

Like I'm swimming out to her

Midnight is where the day begins

Midnight is where the day begins

Midnight is where the day begins

Lemon

See through in the sunlight

A man builds a city
With banks and cathedrals
A man melts the sand so he can
See the world outside

A man makes a car
And builds roads to run them on
A man dreams of leaving
But he always stays behind

And these are the days
When our work has come asunder
And these are the days
When we look for something other

Midnight is where the day begins
Midnight is where the day begins
Midnight is where the day begins

Midnight is where the day begins
Midnight is where the day begins
Midnight is where the day begins

A man captures color

She is the dreamer
She's imagination
