When the night turns mean on you
And the day is dry
And there's no water around
And you can't see the road ahead
You can only see her...

White and light
She's laughing in the face of love
Your love is white and light
(Sing for love)

This is your last chance in my dream
In my dream she stands over me
Surrounded on all sides
She has taken the higher ground
And I'm the willing victim of her love

And faith my favorite drug
And faith my favorite drug
I'm sick for love
Sick for her love

Think for yourself

Just the sight of you makes me live
I can't see straight, walk or talk, to anyone else
I can't even talk to you

White and light, and laughing in the face of your face
White and light
Sing for love
Sing for love

(fade) between the horses of love and lust
we were trampled underfoot
