In my shoes, in my shoes
There is so much to remind me
As the stars come out above me, home

Cool wind, clear my head
Bright sun grow my food
Strong rain clear my heart
Fill my land it's a new day

I don't know why it is sold
Don't know why it's so cold
In this life that we live
New day, new day, new day

In my shoes, in my shoes
There is so much to astound me
As the whirlpool spins around me, home

Bushfire, burn and grow
Sunset watch and rest low
Long night holding child close
Feed my dream

It's a new day
I don't know why it is sold
Don't know why it's so cold
In this life that we live
New day, new day, new day

It's larger than life
Darker than death
We're gonna move
Those mountains aside
