I turn my television on
And all I see are blood and streets
The family stranded through the night
Are hungry with no inn insight for them

All of the lives lost
And all the destruction
There's nowhere to turn now
The blood has consumed us

I can't imagine how you feel
This tragedy will slowly heal, slowly heal
The cameras show us in detail
The children lost consumed by fear
It hurts

All of the lives lost
And all the destruction
There's nowhere to turn now
The blood has consumed us

No one here is safe
The people cry and wait
For shelter from the rain
Someone to ease their pain
No one here is safe
And Air Force One's too late
And there is no escape
From the loss of blood each day

I know you're stranded all alone
We'll search until we bring you home bring you home
You're separated from the ones
Not knowing if you can go on...like this

All of the lives lost
And all the destruction
There's nowhere to turn now
The blood has consumed us

No one here is safe
The people cry and wait

For shelter from the rain
Someone to ease their pain

No one here is safe
And Air Force One's too late
And there is no escape
From the loss of blood each day
