(Seth Casana; Mikael Glago)

basking on the beach snacking on some plantains with a pen and paper jotting down my quatrains island girl bringing guava juice don't mind if I do sneaking off to the sauna, stepping over the iguana sweat drips like so much candy from piÃ±atas conversing with a cutie cockatoo
don't mind if I do if the sun gets too hot, I've got just the remedy we could go back to my sea anemone I mean my cabana, see, I get them confused because there's 88 tendrils protruding from the roof at the tip of each one there's a tiny little room with cushions so soft, they just consume you specifically designed for the comfort of two pick your sister up after work from her cubicle lick her cuticle, tickle with a warm popsicle every word you heard about the triple ripple's true

don't mind if I do
I got a schlong so long it comes out of your mouth when we screw like a second tongue, so a third one can be giving me head while she's kissing on you don't mind if I do ruckus when I can't remember which end my rump is had two poodles and a nude model in my rumpus room you better clean the Vaseline off the beauty queen and refill the condom dispenser in the den 'cause fifty beefy ladies and fifty chunky men all just confirmed their reservation to spend Sunday skinny-dipping in Ragù freaky-deaky vision been freed in my forehead paint the town red with some luck like a firetruck dirty ass visions make a body want to ...

I just a-want to friz-ique all over your physique making love to the rythm of this here beat and do the things that we love to do
don't mind if I do now here's a big girl from San Fransisco with nipple rings four tattoos on her body including mirror images of her posing in the nude "Slip back to my flat and we can sip on a nightcap despite that nervousness, I know you like that if I bite you will you bite me back?" keep on the mind-bending, this trip is never-ending send my vessel with or without comprehending the world's edge has such a lovely view

don't mind if I do

but people always say, "how come you don't do drugs?"
'cause I'm already just a little bit fucked up
