What am I supposed to do when we're side by side and the silence speaks
for 2
is it me or is it you?
oh tonight we need to start something new simple words like 'I love you' it feels so hard to tell the truth

and you look away
too afraid to hear
what you're about to say

how far can you go
how long can you wait
before you speak
from your heart

and the case keeps on and on and the mystery is never solved if I'm not the one you search if you're stuck inside a dead end world

simple words like 'I love you'
it feels so hard to tell the truth
too afraid to hear

before you speak

simple woerds like 'I love you'
