I am protected, behind my paperwall
Forgiven by the noise, forgotten by the clock
I can do what I want, inside my paperwall

Screaming, shouting, killing, fighting,
Everything is only dying
Outside my Paperwall

You don't understand your pain, walking under the cold rain
Surrounded by wars, blinded by guns and orders
You only do what they want, only use what they sent.

Glowing, beaming, sparkling, soothing
Everything is only shinning
Inside my Paperwall

You see clouds, and I see the sun
You see rain, and I see a rainbow
You see funerals, and I see births
You watch TV, and I watch the sky

Inside my paperwall

Now all you have to do,
Is find paper and peace

And just take shelter
Behind your paperwall
Behind your paperwall
