[Verse 1]

Well, your love told you they're leaving home
What on earth are you to do
Well, your love told you they're leaving home
It's a shame for me and you

[Chorus]

But our home will be home
Our home will be home I know

[Verse 2]

Oh, your love told you they're leaving home
And did you cry for me and you
Well, your love told you they're leaving home
Oh, was it me, was it you

[Bridge]

One by one we all move
One by one we all track
To a land where we know our thirst is gone
One by one we all move
One by one we all track
To a land where we know our home will be home

[Chorus]

Our home will be home
Our home will be home
Our home will be home
Our home will be home I know

[Bridge]

One by one we all move
One by one we all track
To a land where we find our thirst is gone
One by one we all move
One by one we all track
To a country we know our home will be home

[Chorus]

Our home will be home
Our home will be home

Our home will be home
Our home will be home
Our home will be home
Our home will be home
Our home will be home I know
