[Verse 1]

This is where we will live
This is where we will die
There's no one to run to
And no place to hide
There's nowhere to turn to
No worlds running wild

So what you gonna do when the world comes calling
What you gonna do when the world comes calling

[Verse 2]

This is where we exist
And this is where we will fight
There's no one to save us
This flat earth we've made
We're blind to the burden
Of taking our praise

So what you gonna do when the world comes calling
What you gonna do when the world comes calling

[Chorus]

What you gonna do when they reach out for you
Tell me you don't think about it
You never think about
What you gonna do when the world comes calling
Oh

[Bridge]

And I still recall the answer
As it rains down from high
You say what you gonna do
What you gonna do, well
What you gonna do
What you gonna do, well
What you gonna do
What you gonna do, oh

Well, what you gonna do when the world comes calling
What you gonna do when the world comes calling

[Chorus]

Well, what you gonna do when they reach out for you
Tell me you don't think about it
You never think about
What you gonna do when the world comes calling
Oh, when it comes calling, yeah

What you gonna do when they reach out for you
Tell me you don't think about it
You never think about
What you gonna do when the world comes calling
