This is getting old!
I fly tonight
I'm making way in a night sky,
Lost inside, lost inside my own mind!
Losing control, engines down!
"Soul to saviour, we have failure"
It's time to meet the pavement
I'm everyone's favourite moment

What's with all the noise?

As I lay there, eyes to stars,
Events unexplained, wide awake
You stand over me with hands extend
Pick me up, lift me up

What's with all the noise?

Why is everyone in here screaming?
As my line begins to flatten?
Is this what they wanted from me?
Is this what they wanted to see?

White lights! Bright lights! Moving quickly!
Finally aware that I'm unaware,
I'm finally aware that I am unaware!

Inject intravenous therapy, to keep the heart beating
(... bash in the mirror, I think I'm starting to see someone new)

I will never know how much of myself,
How much of myself was left at the accident scene...

Inject intravenous therapy, to keep the heart beating
Soul to saviour, we have failure...
I'm everyone's favourite moment
