

Unbelievable Truth "A Name"

Visit "A Name" on MotoLyrics.com

Bite the bullet maybe you can tolerate the pain
History will praise you when you're lying in your grave
But maybe you deserve to have a name
Sometimes I wonder what would Jesus have done?
Made another stand and then been crushed like a bug
I feel the need, I feel the need to blame
Bite the bullet a little trick that foils a firing squad
Is there another that could turn back the tide?
Find the ones, find the ones to blame
Find the ones, find the ones to blame
I have to know, we have to know a name
