Tomorrow I'll cover page one
First the ruins then the museums
Nothing life-changing's happened
But I'm hoping tomorrow it will.
This won't help me
This won't help me
The sunshine is angry as hell
So I don't like venturing out
My window looks onto a store
Selling tickets to get out of here
This won't help me
Fly me back now
This won't help me
I think I've messed up
I think I've messed up
This won't help me
The strange thing about this store
Is the locals are queuing for flights
I think I'll go down there aswell
Since I came here to see how they live
This won't help me
Fly me back now
This won't help me
Fly me back now
This won't help me
Fly me back now
I think I've messed up
I think I've messed up...
Fly me back now
