Unbelievable Truth
"Stone"

The words
That I deliver,
Always out of breath
Out on a limb.
Life out of the mainstream,
I declare it dead and gone,
Out of the scene.
None of this is harder
Than knowing about you.
If you were someone else I could live
Without you.
Come back later.
Be the stone around my neck.
Up-set.
Up.
And there's something
You don't notice.
What it is I
Never said.
Come back later.
Be the stone around my neck.
None of this is harder than knowing about you.
If you were someone else I could live without you.
Come back later.
Be the stone around my neck.
Come back later.
Be the stone around my neck.
Up-set.
Up.
