85 miles out of Nashville, thinking about the way things change

Try an keep it by the reigns

I'm a lone drifter, big money flipper

Take anything you got on the rocks in a snifter

I missed her in Kentucky, went down to Louisiana

I never had no loving like I had in Alabama

A man of my word and out to hurt nobody

I'm just a MC to keep the boogie in the party

Been sittin lodi dodi since 84 and

I'll be sitting lodi dodi till I'm eighty four

I couldn't ask for more, life's been sweet

So you can save the planet I'll save your seat

I've been gone for weeks, I ain't slept in days

I can't find myself in this self made maze

It's been so long since I've been fine

I'm just trying to see the bottom of this bottle of wine

And I know I'll see better days

Well I know you'll see things my way

I never thought about change until

Spend a little time where time stood still

Been looking for a mill, but I keep coming up shy

I been a broke fool, I ain't trying to be that guy

Wanna ride like lightning, roll like thunder

I'm trying to get some money I ain't getting any younger

At times I wonder at, at times I won't

Sometimes I give a fuck, but most times I don't

Don't, don't even care

Through stained glass windows these eyes stare

I try to stay straight but it's kicking my ass

Everytime I look ahead I get a glimpse of the past

I sit half mass like a soldier's flag

That's why my left leg limp's and my Dickies sag

It's been so long since I've been fine

I'm just trying to see the bottom of this bottle of wine

And I know I'll see better days

Well I know you'll see things my way

And I know I'll see better days

Well I know you'll see things my way

Well I been all around this crooked land
I came across all walks, I shook Jim Beam's hand
I got no plans and no place to go
It keeps getting harder to just say no
I see the people laugh and people cry
That's how some live and that's how some die
Well me, myself I'm gonna sit right here
And I'm a watch this this world break down in tears
All my fears and dark gray skies
Couldn't crack my smile or break my stride
Got too much pride, I got too much shout
I might be down, but I still ain't out
Got too much time and that's all I have
When I leave this world I'll still be sad
It's been so long since I've been fine
I'm just trying to see the bottom of this bottle of wine
And I know I'll see better days
Well I know you'll see things my way
And I know I'll see better days
Well I know you'll see things my way
