Is it all that you needed from this, I hope it meant
anything, anything

We had no chance, crushed by the bare feet of circumstance
We were in

Life stumbles by like the face of a random passerby
I'll wave him goodbye

Cities burn in angels arms, they must learn the lessons from... tonight

Is it all that you needed from this I hope, it meant
anything, anything
At all... to remember your ghost I know... it means everything, everything.

Get what you wanted?
We had no chance, slip on your black shoes for the last dance, we'll be in Life flickers by, like the light in a captured firefly, I'll wave him goodbye

Cities burn in angels arms, they must learn the lessons
from tonight.

Is it all that you needed from this I hope, it meant
anything, anything
everything, everything.

Get what you wanted, get what you want?

We're born we begin to die throwing these moments
into the fire
Reborn when we say goodbye, knowing that life ends
into the fire.

Is it all that you needed from this I hope, it meant
anything, anything

everything, everything.

Did you get what you wanted?
