I felt like shit when i woke up even though i had the time of my life was a messy mess messed up weeked couldnt finish with a better night you said you would come and see me now i know thats just a big lie and its really unfair when you said you dont care when we chased the buzz that night i told all my mates that your sorted and they all think your really quite fit and i still wanna shout when i see you even though you make me look like a tit it would be good to go out chasing on another night out on the piss but its best left where it was and i know this because it really is time i should quit i dont see you hanging around here anymore i dont see you anymore

that night was a one night only thats fine by me
my outfit is ripped to pieces
thanks for the memories
that night was a one night only
thanks for the memories
you spend the night just chasing the buzz whilst i was just chasing the tears i forget all the times i was with you till the next time you send me a text and then i get all built up and thoughtful and i end up in a big mess and i hope that i never see you and i hope that i see you again and everythings just fine and i loved the time and i loved that night the best

i dont see you hanging around here anymore

that night was a one night only
you spend the night just chasing the buzz

even though i had the time of my life
and its really unfair when you said you dont care
