This is something I cant handle
I wish i had your strength
Just one once
Just one once ould make me warm again
Lessons in the wind
Your lessons in the wind
Times cold hands affects me and bleeds me dry

I am beaten
untill my eyes are swollen shut
untill my eyes are swollen shut
untill my eyes are swollen shut

Carry the wait of your time
Still moving
Standing up straight while confined Still proving

Swallowed by humility
Fear the new change coming
Still afraid to let it be Facing lifes unvertainty
Take the new change running
Only fear comformity with change you
