Tak the hatchet that i thought id buried
Cut me down and throw me away
This is just routine and a fact of life
Its halfway through the night and still no sleep

There is nothing more for me(see me falling down)
But a death and scream (fuel my strength now)
Give me strength where they are weak (see me falling down)
Give me sight where they cant see (clear my site now)

Getting up as i try
Prying open my eyes
Fighting until the end
When you.....
Hope is all i have and ill never concede agian
Hope is all i have and need
