Clearing as the sound wraps around the horizon
I'm standing still, I'm standing still Waiting for one change, now I know it's over
I'm walking out, I'm walking out

What do you expect of me? Did you think
That this was all an excuse for hospitality?
I know you think it's all because of me

At first glance I was breathing
Leaving myself no room to move at all
Why not? It's all fun and and I'm drunk with regret

Swimming in a sea of hope tonight
We'll run around and chase these people
As we push away with everything we have
With everything we have

Directing all my words, directing all my words
(We can start the fire, then we'll light up the night)
No I wouldn't be too sure, sure of you at all
Sure of you at all

We'll watch it burn together on respective sides
We look so good, we look so good as we fall
As we fall, as we fall

I'll go ahead and re-elect perfections
It never looked as good as it does on you right now
I'll go ahead and make an incision
Doubt she'll feel anything at all

I think I'm gone, so much pain, I don't notice
At least I can say I made it out this time
I just want for you to listen, that's why you'll be sure
To cover up, to cover up your wounds

Directing all my words, directing all my words
(We can start the fire, then we'll light up the night)
No I wouldn't be too sure, sure of you at all
Sure of you at all

Directing all my words, directing all my words
(We can start the fire, then we'll light up the night)
No I wouldn't be too sure, sure of you at all
Sure of you at all

I don't know how to say this
My thoughts have just run out
You've just run out, you've just run out
You've just run out
