"When All Else Failed"

When I had nothing else left, you were there.
I just want to say that right now, right this second.
There is someone getting killed.
Rather it be in a car accident, a suicide, an abortion,
Someone is dying everyday for unknown reasons that shouldn't be.
Why does this happen?
Our world is changing and no one can do anything about it.
I just pray and put my faith into all of you listening out there.
Honor thy father and mother and obey by our Masters commands.
For he is coming soon, and no one will be ready.
